

NHS
at 70

The story of our lives

EXHIBITION: NHS at 70: The Story of our Lives

Thursday 1 March 6pm - 8.30pm | Friday 2 March 10am - 4pm
Saturday 3 March 10am - 4pm

THE GRAND HALL | THE WHITWORTH | FREE ENTRY

As the National Health Service turns 70, discover some of the events and stories that have shaped the history of this unique institution. The exhibition features some of the stories collected by our volunteers and community reporters in Greater Manchester and South Wales.

Thursday Late: Film Premiere 'Voices from the First NHS Hospital'
Q&A with film contributors and Dr Stephanie Snow,
Director of NHS at 70: The Story of Our Lives project.*

The Story of Our Lives: Friday: 11am and 2pm & Saturday: 11am and 1pm
Drop-in, interactive performances will bring NHS stories to life.
Devised and performed by Herizons creative women's group,
led by enJOY arts and singer-songwriter, Claire Mooney.

Stories of Change: 70 Years of the NHS

The University of Manchester MA Students will showcase their NHS stories curated using objects from the Museum of Medicine and Health.

the Whitworth

* Book via nhs70.org.uk

The story of our lives

NHS at 70 is the first UK wide project to create a digital archive of the stories of people who worked and were cared for by the NHS since its creation in 1948.

Marking the anniversary in 2018, NHS at 70 will be collecting oral histories until 2020. Share yours now:
nhs70.org.uk

Brought to you by

The University of Manchester

LOTTERY FUNDED

Our supporters include

NHS CONFEDERATION

Changing the world
of work for good